INVITATION TO THE TABLE

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

May the God of mountaintops be with you.

And also with you.

Do not be afraid to come to our God.

We come, offering our hearts in joy and hope.

Here, at this Table, sing praises to God.

We rejoice, singing our thanks to the One who welcomes us here.

With the Word and the Spirit,
Majestic Glory,
you conspired against chaos,
shrouding mountains in clouds,
teaching birds how to sing,
carving paths for waters to race to the seas.

You shaped us in your image,
yearning to be with your beloved children,
but we did not want
to be tied to your apron strings,
and so went down the rabbit trails
devised by sin and death.

You sent prophets to us,
who called us back to you over and over,
yet we would not pay attention to their Yield and Stop signs.

So you sent your Beloved
to us, so we might return to you.

With those who stood on mountaintops,
and those who serve in the valleys,
we lift our songs to you:

Holy, holy, holy are you, God of wonder.
All creation gathers to praise you.
Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is the One who receives honor and glory.
Hosanna in the highest!

You alone are holy, God of our hearts,
and your Child, Jesus Christ, is our Savior.
He was not afraid to become one of us,
being faithful to your call.

He was willing to walk
in the shadowed corners of life,
so your hope might
shine forth like the sun.

As those around him conspired,
he went up to the cross
where death waited to defeat him, yet your glory settled upon him
as he walked out of the tomb.

As we journey with him up the mountain,
as he walks with us through our valleys,
we are a part of that mystery we call faith:

Christ died, coming to the end of life;
Christ rose, coming with the bright sun of the resurrection;
Christ will come, so we may be God's beloved children.

We come to the Table where,
by the presence of the Spirit,
bread becomes the grace we need,
the cup offers us the hope for which we long.
Taking them up, you transfigure them
into that sacred meal of love which strengthens us to get up and go into our neighborhoods,
bringing light to the shadows,
hope for the despairing,
healing for the broken,
justice for the forsaken.

And when you gather us up,
taking us to the holy place of your heart,
we will join with those of every time and place,
forever singing your praises,
God in Community, Holy in One. Amen.
